LIVE MUSIC FROM CINCINNATI'S "THE RUMRUNNERS"
POST-EVENT PARTY AT ARNIE'S ON THE LEVEE

Kickin' off the Summer — Cincinnati style!

We are excited that the 12th Annual RGI River Run, which is presented by Duke Energy and benefits Kicks For Kids (KFK), will once again launch the Tri-State's summer running season! Taking place at 9:15 AM on the Saturday (5/24/08) of Memorial Day weekend, the proceeds of the RGI River Run will support KFK's efforts to "level the playing field" for local children who are challenged physically, mentally or by the environment in which they live.

Last year's RGI River Run set more records – for both the number of participants (906) and the amount of funds raised (over $36,500)! In an effort to build upon these successes, the unique components of the event will once again be featured. Registration and all of the post-race events will occur at the scenic Purple People Bridge; the 5K run/walk will bridge Newport, Covington and Cincinnati; the touching Special K (for children with physical and/or mental disabilities), the exciting Children's Fun Run and the unique Parent/Child Teams will once again be offered; Cincinnati's The RumRunners will perform live; participants will have the chance to win great awards and are registered for the highly anticipated door prize drawing; and each entrant will receive a ticket good for free food and drink at the post-event party at Arnie's on the Levee!

As fathers, professional athletes and members of Kicks For Kids' Executive Board, our goal for the 12th Annual RGI River Run on 5/24/08 is for it to be a quality fundraiser that appeals to top runners as well as recreational athletes and families. We are confident that on May 24th you will find that we have achieved this goal.
